Dear Maury,

When we were chatting the other night and I understood that your story interest is not what I thought, just the publishing or non-pyblishing ~~xxix~~ history (or am I again confused), I ll be glad to help with that.

Only I cannot now take the time to make the notes.

Perhaps some day soon I'll be in Phila again and we can get together before you begin to work and I can tell you. This will have the additioanl advantage of letting you find out what you want~~x~~ to know not what I think you want to know.

Tell everybody "hello".

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
